Lierz (Liertz) Family Group - 1630 to present - by Maurice Lierz

About Our Extended Lierz Family

The Lierz family members came to the United States of America from Germany in the mid 1800's. They arrived in New York and went to Milwaukee, Wisconsin in the 1850's. By 1860, certain members had moved to Kansas or Missouri. First, we will profile the ancestors from 1630 to the mid 1800's. Then, we will review Christine Lierz Dick's family and Peter Joseph Lierz' family.

European Ancestors - Joannes Mathias Lierz and Christina Berg Family - 1793 into 1800's
These parents were Joannes Mathias Liertz (Lierz) (father), who was born on November 12, 1793 in Rheinbach, Rheinland, Preussen (Germany), and Christina Berg (mother), who was born on May 18, 1797 in Koeln Stadt, Rheinland, Preussen (Germany). They were married on October 14, 1824 in Sechtem/Bonn, Rheinland, Preussen (Germany). To this union were born five children, two boys and three girls. They were: Peter (born - 1829), Anna Christine (born - November 20, 1834), Elisabeth (born - July 11, 1837), Peter Joseph, Sr. (born - March 9, 1839) and Anna Catharina (born - May 10, 1844). All of the children were born in the Sechtem/Bonn, Rhineland, Germany area.

It is believed that Christina Berg Lierz died before 1856 in Sechtem, Rhineland, Preussen (Germany).

Joannes Mathias Lierz travelled to the USA with his three daughters, Anna Christine, Elisabeth and Anna Katharina and young son, Peter Joseph, in 1856. It probably took them two years to obtain clearance to leave Germany under local government rules. His oldest son, Peter, came to the USA in 1854 and may not have spent the time to obtain official government clearance.

Based on the existing genealogy data in 2000, we are missing information on what happened to Peter Lierz (believed that he died a single man in either, Missouri or Kansas), Elizabeth (maybe Margretha, for middle name), Anna Katharina and their father, Joannes Mathias Lierz. Joannes was 63 years of age at the time of his emigration to the USA in 1856. For Joannes and two of his daughters, we are missing information on them and how they lived and died in the United States of America.

European Ancestors - Joes Severinus Liertz and Anna Maria Krahe Family
Their parents were Severinum Liertz, who was born February 6, 1715/16 in Rheinbach, Rheinland, Preussen, and Mariae Catharinae Kueschenbach, who was born October 19, 1721, Puderbach, Rheinland, Preussen.
They were married in Rheinland, Preussen on November 12, 1775. To this union were born (identified) eleven children. Their names were:

Severinus Liertz (born February 26, 1776), Laurentius Liertz (born November 10, 1777), Anna Catharina Liertz (born January 17, 1780), Christina Liertz, (born December 26, 1781), Petrus Josephus Liertz (born July 2, 1784), Joannes Liertz (born October 1, 1786), Maria Christina Liertz (December 13, 1787), Johann Henricus Liertz (July 25, 1790),Elizabeth Liertz,(born November 4, 1792), Joannes Mathias Liertz (Lierz) (born November 12, 1793), and Henricus Liertz (born April 10, 1796). Our direct ancestor was Joannes Mathias Liertz (Lierz) and he was the tenth child and the sixth son of that marriage. From available records, it appears that all of these children were born in Rheinbach, Rheinland, Preussen (Germany).

European Ancestors - Severinum Liertz and Anna Catharinae Born Family ***

Severinum Liertz was born February 6, 1715/16 in Rheinbach, Rheinland, Preussen, he was the son of Theodoro Liertz and Mariae Catharinae Kueschenbach.
Anna Catharinae Born was born October 19, 1721 in Puderbach, Rheinland, Preussen, she was the daughter of Conrad Born and Eva Mallerts. Severinum and Anna were married in about 1742 in Rheinland Preussen. To this union were born twelve children: Theodorus Liertz (born March 5, 1743/44), Georgius Liertz (born March 30, 1745), Antonius Liertz (born February 17, 1746/47), Joes Georgius Liertz (born February 17, 1746/47), Joannes Liertz (born August 6, 1747), Maria Catharina Liertz (born November 14, 1750), Joes Severinus Liertz (born March 18, 1775), Christianus Liertz (born January 6, 1756), Maria Margaretha Liertz (born March 2, 1758), Anna Gertrudis Liertz (born November 16, 1759), Johannes Liertz, (born June 25, 1762) and Joes Joannes Liertz (born August 26, 1764). Our direct ancestor was Joes Severinus Liertz, who was the seventh child and the sixth son of that marriage. All of the children were born in Rheinbach, Rheinland, Preussen.

 European Ancestors - Theodoro Liertz and Mariae Catharinae Kueschenbach*

Theodoro Liertz was born November 9, 1692 in Rheinbach, Rheinland, Preussen and his parents were Danielis Liertz and Ursulae Lohrers.
Mariae Catharinae Kueschenbach was born about 1692 in Rheinbach, Rheinland, Preussen. Theodoro and Mariae were married about 1714 in Rheinbach, Rheinland, Preussen. To this union were born four children. Their names were: Severinum Liertz (born February 6, 1715/16), Gertrudis Liertz (born March 19, 1717/18), Adelheidis Liertz (born January 3, 1718/19) and Jois Georgius Liertz (born April 2, 1720). Our direct ancestor was Severinum Liertz, who was the first child and the first son of that marriage. All of the children were born in Rheinbach, Rheinland, Preussen (Germany).

European Ancestors - Danielis Liertz and Ursulae Lohrers ***

Danielis Liertz was born about 1660 in Rheinbach Rheinland, Preussen of German parents. Listed here as Man and Woman Liertz.
Ursulae Lohrers was born about 1662 in Rheinland, Preussen and we have no details on her parents.
Danielis and Ursulae were married about 1687 in Rheinland, Preussen. To this marriage were born five children. Genealogy Research in USA

Alot of research and contacts have been made of various branches of the Lierz families in the USA.

Cletus Suther completed a genealogy research study in the 1970's. In 1998 and 1999, Maurice Lierz and Betty Lierz Swann were completing an update of that research, etc.

In the year 2000, Betty Lierz Swann has spent considerable time updating the European Ancestor data from the LDS website, referred to herein. She found over 200 Liertz, Lierz and Lirtz members in the LDS database, based on persons who lived in the 1600's, 1700's and 1800's in Germany, who lived in the Rheinbach, Sechtem, and Bonn areas. These three locations are near Cologne, Germany in the vicinity of the Rhine River as it flows in the north west area of Germany. The LDS church microfilmed certain church and civic records for the villages of Rheinbach, Sechtem, and Bonn and those records were located at Schloss Bruhl near Cologne, Germany, after the Second World War. The microfilm was forwarded to Salt Lake City, Utah. These electronic records were developed from the microfilmed records on file in Salt Lake City, Utah.

The available genealogy data has been obtained or verified by various family members and other sources.

From a review of the Lierz family name members listed in the U. S. Social Security Index listing for the period of 1937 to 1996 or 1998, all Lierz names can be identified with this greater Lierz family group.

In addition, certain early ancestor data has been obtained from the LDS website www.FamilySearch.com - International Genealogy Index database.

Family Profiles - Lierz and Others

Through the use of Personal Computer program, certain family genealogy reports are possible. The descendants of Christina Lierz Dick and Peter Joseph Lierz are available and are in various stages of completion.

For example, the Peter Joseph Lierz, the Christana Lierz Dick, and the Albert Lierz Sr.(a son of Peter) descendant files have been prepared.

At some point in time, other descendants will be available for general information purposes.

The available genealogy data can be obtained by writing to Maurice Lierz, 139 Ridge Crest Drive, Santa Fe, New Mexico, 87505. In addition, his email address is mlierz at AOL.com.

(P.S. - I also have the family networked genealogy data on the descendents of Wenzel Waller (my grandmother Elizabeth Waller's father), Casper Wichman (my grandfather Henry (Harry)Wichman's father) and Casper Block (my grandmother Rose Block Wichman's father). Each of these family groups lived in or near Seneca, Nemaha County, Kansas for a period of their lives.
With these family groups and others, I now have a total networked family genealogy database with over 11,000 people in it.)

Generation No. 1

1. HUBERT^7 LIERTZ/LIERZ, SR. (JOANNES MATHIAS^6, JOES SEVERINUS^5 LIERTZ, SEVERINUM^4, THEODORO^3, DANIELIS^2, MAN^1) was born October 23, 1825 in Sechtem/Bonn, Rheinland, Preussen, and died September 12, 1896 in Sechtem/Bonn, Rheinland, Preussen. He married MARGARETHA SCHUERHECK July 24, 1851 in Sechtem/Bonn, Rheinland, Preussen[1]. She was born June 18, 1829 in Trippelsdorf/Bonn, Rheinland, Preussen, and died August 03, 1858 in Bruhl/Koln, Rheinland, Germany.

Notes for HUBERT LIERTZ/LIERZ, SR.:
In 2000, it is now believed that Hubert Liertz/Lierz was the oldest son of Matthias and Christine Berg Lierz.

Hubert Lierz was a rural farmer (bauerlichen) and worked as the occupation of being a roof deck master (Dachdeckermeister) in the Sechtem/Bonn area of the Rhineland of Germany.

Regarding the family surname, it was decided by the language experts in Germany in the mid 1800's that under modern German language (moderne Rechtschreibung verstosse) that the rtz would be better if the "t" were dropped from the surname. As a result, all of the children of Hubert were then given the name of Lierz, as their surname.

For three of his sons, Matthias, Johann and Heinrich Lierz, they followed their father in his occupation of being a farmer and roof deck master.

Maurice Lierz (USA) met Peter Lierz (Germany) through an email search of the Lierz name on the internet in 1999. They began corresponding about the Lierz family surname. Peter involved his father, Wilhelm Lierz, in the genealogy research. Through the exchange of email and regular mail genealogy information, they were able to establish that there was a direct family relationship. With Maurice Lierz making a trip to Germany in May and June of 2000, Peter Lierz helped Maurice Lierz to find lodging for myself and his wife at a 15 century wine house (Dycker Weinhaus - Klosterstrasse 1, 41363 Juchen-Damm, Germany). As a result, this planning led to their family group meeting near Duesseldorf on June 6, 2000, for an evening meal and discussion of family genealogy matters. At that meeting, there were seven Lierz family members from Germany with Maurice and Virginia Lierz from the USA. They all had a very interesting and historic meeting, since this was the first known contact between any descendants of Peter Joseph Lierz (Maurice's great-great grandfather) and Hubert Lierz (Wilhelm and Heinrich's great-great grandfather). At that meeting, they were able to establish that Peter was a younger brother of Hubert Lierz.

2. MATTHIAS (LURTZ)^2 LIERZ (JOSEPH^1 LIERS)^4 was born March 25, 1811 in Adendorf, Rheinnland, Preussen^5, and died WFT Est. 1837-1897 in USA^6. He married CHRISTINA BERG Abt. 1831^7.

Notes for MATTHIAS (LURTZ) LIERZ: Religion - Catholic.

At the time Matthias Lierz emigrated to the United States of America (USA) in the early 1850's with two daughters and two sons, the situation was bad in Europe, particularly in Prussia (Germany). The men were subject to the military draft and a number of battles and wars were being fought.

Why a man would leave a wife and a daughter in Germany for an indefinite period of time is presently unknown in 1998. Maybe there were plans to have them join the other family members after they were settled in the USA. Maybe the certain family members had a difficult time adjusting to the life in the USA.

Christina Lierz Dick and Peter Joseph Lierz, however, made their separate ways to Kansas. What ever happened to Matthias Lierz, Margretha Liertz and Joe Lierz is still unknown in 1998.

Notes for CHRISTINA BERG:
Christina must have stayed in German with her daughter Anna, when her husband, daughters Christina and Margretha, along with their two brothers (Peter and Joe) traveled to the United States for emigration purposes in 1838. There maybe some confusion over whether or not Margretha emigrated or stayed in Germany.

The name Lierz is also spelled Liertz, or Liers in various documents.

Christina was born at Sechtem, Rhine Province, Germany. When, in those days, there was great honor attached to land ownership (Owners were called Herren). The family owned an acreage near Boon and raised fowl, as Christina grew up. She put the eggs, all in one basket, carried them to market at Cologne (about ten or so miles away). While there would visit the Cologne Cathedral, with great reverence and awe before returning to her home in Boon. She carried the basket of eggs on her head - she was still very erect, even as an old lady. She died at Seneca, Kansas on January 18, 1924.

viii. ALBERT JOSEPH LIERZ , SR., b. December 10, 1877, Seneca, Kansas; d. September 29, 1942, Seneca, Kansas; m. ELIZABETH ANN WALLER, January 28, 1902, Seneca, Kansas.

Notes for ALBERT JOSEPH LIERZ , SR.:
Albert Joseph Lierz was born on December 10, 1877 of a farm, which was east of Seneca, Kansas.
He was the son of Peter Joseph and Gertrude (Yeager) Lierz.

Albert was married to Elizabeth Waller on January 28, 1902 at Sts. Peter and Paul Church in Seneca, Kansas.

Albert and Elizabeth were the parents of fourteen children:

Magdeline (Mrs. Edward Hasenkamp), Lawrence, Stella (Mrs. George Mergenmeier), Clarence, Albert, Walter, Charles, Joseph, Elizabeth (Mrs. Francis Larkin), Eldora (Mrs. Ovil Knox), Lora (Mrs. Francis Wietharn), Johanna (Mrs. Warren Hylton) and Ralph Lierz. Rosanne passed away when she was one month old.

When their schooling ended, generally when they finished the eight grade, they worked with their father on his farm(s). Because of such a large family, they could work alot of ground in which to plant, nurture and harvest. One of the children (Charles) remembered that they sometimes would hitch up 32 horses or mules for work on a single day. The Lierz senior family was a very active group with 13 children.

Food preparation fo a large family of 15 people was quite an undertaking. The girls in the family would help with the cooking. The girls would prepare breadkfast, of two eggs for each person. However, some of the boys would slip two eggs off the platter, eat them before anyone noticed. Then complain, that they didn't get any eggs, because the girls hadn't cooked enough. As a result, the girls would get into trouble with their parents. In addition, it was the girls job to prepare sandwiches, for noon time, and then take them out into the fields, where the boys were working. Charles said, he didn't know how Albert Jr. managed it, but he was noted for always getting to the food first. By the time everyone else arrived to get their food, Albert had taken one bite out of everyone else's sandwich.

One story was that they liked to tell was the one about when Ralph (the youngest boy) was about seven or eight years old. His birthday was on July 4. That morning, Ralph went outside to where his older brothers were preparing to go to work in the fields (on this holiday), he is reported to have made the statement "A great man was born on this day". One of the brothers picked him up and threw him into one of the big stock tanks. Ralph went to the big family house and complained to his father (Mr. Lierz senior). His father said, " Go outside and stand in the sun, you'll dry off, and, I have told you before to stay away from those big boys".

Another story was that in such a large family, the grown children had to take turns using the family car. This was a very important item, particularly for Saturday night dances. In addition, there was a slight decline in the large farm yard (to the road). The grown boys would have a contest to see how far they could go down this decline and down the road toward town, before they had to start the engine in the car.

Mr. Lierz was a quiet, industrious man and a good citizen. He was always willing and anxious to help his neighbors in their work.

Mr. Lierz's greatest interest in life was his children and grand children. However, he was strict, authoratian parent. This was probably the result of his strong German ancestry. His children did not marry ouside of the Catholic faith and when they started dating there could be trouble. One of the sister is reported to have taken refuge at a brother's home over a dating incident, when her father (Mr. Lierz) got very anger with her over a dating issue.

Mr. Lierz went to Kansas City in about 1932 to have surgery . After that surgery, he was not able to do much heavy work. The last eight years of his life, he was battling colon cancer. Mr. Lierz spent many days going to town to visit and play cards with his friends, during those years. In the last two years of his life, he never left the farm, nor did Elizabeth, his wife. She spent those two years nursing him through the final stages of his cancer.

He passed away on September 29, 1942, at his farm home east of Seneca, Kansas. He was over sixty four years old.

Funeral services were held at Sts. Peter and Paul Church and he was buried at the Catholic Cemetery at Seneca, Kansas.

The World Book Encyclopedia, Rhine River - The Rhine in History - Page 274 - (Volume 16 -1972) ==, The Rhine has been important in European history since Julius Caesar built a timber bridge across it. For 400 years, the Rhine was the boundary between the Romans and the Germanic tribes. On the west bank of the Rhine grew up the Roman cities of Cologne, or Koln, Kolblenz and Mainz, all in Germany; Strasbourg, in France; and Basel, in Switzerland. During the Middle Ages, the Rhine was under German rule from Basel to the Netherlands. But when, France gained a foothold on its western shore, in 1648, at the close of the Thirty Years' War, a struggle began which lasted into the 1900's. Louis XIV made gains in the Rhine Valley and Napoleon restored the old Roman boundaries of France. Even after Napoleon was defeated, Alsace, which borders the Rhine from Switzerland to beyond Strasbourg, was left in French hands. But Germany seized it again in 1870.==The same territory was battled over once more during World War I. The Treaty of Versailles returned Alsace and Lorraine to France, again extending that country's domain to the Rhine, Germany signed an agreement not to fortify the Rhineland. In 1936, Hitler repudiated this agreement and began to militarize the region. During World War II, heavy fighting occurred along the Rhine in the last part of the European struggle. After the war, the river again became on of the busiest waterways in the world.==Note: In the German language, The Rhine was known a "Rheinland" and Prussia was known as "Preussen".

2. The World Book Encyclopedia, Prussia - Volume 15 - Page 744 - #1 ==, Prussia was a powerful military nation in North-central Europe, for hunderd of years. When the Prussian king became emperor of a united Germany, in 1871, Prussia became the largest state in the German Empire.==Prussia was more than the name of a country, However, It also represented a military way of life. Prussian armies were among the most rigidly drilled and disciplined in the world. The generals, from the aristocratic class called "Junkers", owned huge estates.==The Land and Resources- At the height of its power in the late 1800's, Prussia occupied the northern two thirds of Germany. It extended from Belgium and The Netherlands on the west to Russia on the east. The most fertile land for farming lay in the valleys of the Rhine, Oder, and Elbe rivers. ==The People and Their Work - The rulers of Prussia, headed by the royal family of Hohensollern, controlled lands originally peopled by Slavs, and conquered and colonized by Germans in the Middle Ages. There were about 200 families of hereditary aristocrats, of Junkers, who owned most of the land. Men who worked the farms had no land of their own, and served in the Prussian army about eight or nine months each year. The main cities of Prussia were Berlin, the capital, and Konigsberg in East Prussia.==Frederick the Great (Frederick II) came to the throne of Prussia in 1740. He helped form the Prussian theory of government based on discipline and authority. He believed in the idea "might make right". His tax collectors were called "war commissars" and all the members of his cabinet were called "War Ministers".==Napoleonic Period - Less skilled rulers followed Frederick the Great, and Napoleon easliy defeated the Prussians in 1806.==German Empire - Prussia reached the peak of its power after King Wilhelm I came to the throne in 1861and chose Otto Von Bismarck as prime minister. 36. Research and Comments - By Cletus W. Suther, Peter Joseph Lierz - Family Tree - Forward - About 1976, The information contained in the genealogy of the Lierz Family has been complied through the help of living relatives and the following references: Seneca Courier- Tribune newspaper, History of Nemaha County Kansas, historical and biographical book written in 1916 by Ralph Tennal. The bi-weekly copies of the above newspaper are on file at the Public Library, Seneca, Kansas, dating back to the late 1880's. These newspaper copies and the book are the property of the library and can be seen and read there.Most of the information for the geneology was obtained by talking to and writing letters to relatives. Some of the information was known to conflict at times, especially concerning dates of deceased relatives. I took all information into consideration and wrote the genealogy as true and correct, as I could from information obtained.As far back as I have been able to find without further research in Germany, it appears that the oldest ancestor was Peter Joseph Lierz. I am building this family tree from Peter Joseph Lierz down to the present day descendants.Book contained - Cletus W. Suther   209 Frayne Avenue   New Carlisle, Ohio.

37. Research and Comments - By Cletus W. Suther, Peter Joseph Lierz - Family Tree - Comments #1, Tracing the family tree has been interesting, informative and a challenge. Many families living in and around Seneca, Kansas has made it easier to trace. While on vacation, I visited many relatives to collect information for this family tree. Since then, I have had to rely heavily through correspondence with other living relatives.Peter Joseph Lierz came to the United States Of America (USA) with his father, a brother and I believe two sisters. Their ship landed in New York and they located in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. At this time, I have no information on his parents, brother or a sister. His sister, Christina married John Dick near Milwaukee. They later moved to St. Benedict, Kansas.Michael Lierz died at infancy on November 24, 1878. He was a twin of brother of George Lierz.It is interesting to note, that there are many sources available to find information on families, such as county records of births and deaths, church records and local newspapers. However, years ago in Germany only those who owned property were listed in state or local records. People who rented or did not own any property were not recorded. These people can be found only in church or parish records of births and deaths. I understand the church records in Germany go back as far as the 1600's.Most everyone who came from Germany knew someone who had come to the USA before them. Most of them needed help financially to get here. Upon arriving in America, they would work for their stewardship until they repaid their fare.A special thanks to all in this history for answereing my letters and sending me additional information when needed. Without your cooperation, this family tree would not have been made.Peter Joseph Lierz was born March 9, 1839 in Sechtem, Rhine Province, Germany. As a youth, he came to the United States of America (USA) with his parents and settled in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

40. The World Book Encyclopedia, Page 153 - (Volume 8 - 1972) ==, Germany - The Revolution of 1848 == Beginning in 1846, harvests were poor in Germany and business activity decreased. Many Germans were hungry and out of work. In March, 1848, news of a revolt in France set off revolts in Germany. In Vienna, rioting by students and workers forced the Austrian ruler to dismiss his prime minister and promise a democratic constitution. Rioting in Berlin lead the Prussian king to promise the election of a new assembly that would write a democratic constitution. Similar revolts broke out in almost all the other German capitals.A national parliament was elected and took over the powers of the Bundestag in May, 1848. The German Confederation ended, and the new parliament began to prepare a constitution for a united Germany.By the end of 1848, the economy had improved and many people lost interest in the revolution. In addition, a split had developed between the lower and middle classes, greatly weakening the revolutionary movement. In October, 1848, Austrian troops put down the revolution in Vienna. The Austrian constitution had been written, but it was simply ignored. In December, 1848, the new Prussian assembly was dissolved before it completed a constitution.The national parliament completed its constitution in March, 1849. The parliament invited Frederick William IV of Prussia to be emperor, but he opposed the revolutionary movement and refused. Without his support, the parliament soon broke up. In 1851, the German Confederation was re-established.

41. The World Book Encyclopedia, Page 154 - (Volume 8 - 1972) ==, The Unification of Germany ==In the 1830's, Prussia had formed the Zollverein (Customs Union), a trading agreement with many other German states. Under this agreement, the member states reduced or ended tariffs on goods traded among themselves. The union helped unite Germany economically. Prussia kept Austria, its rival for leadership in Germany, out of the union. == In 1862, Otto von Bismarck became prime minister of Prussia. He was determined to increase Prussia's powers in Germany. To achieve his goal, Bismarck greatly strengthened the Prussia army and fought three short wars.==The first of the three wars was fought in 1864. Prussia and Austria, in the name of the German Confederation, took the German duchies of Schleswig and Holsteinf from Denmark. In 1866, Bismarck picked a quarrel with Austria, and Prussia easily defeated Austria in the Seven Weeks' War. Under the peace treaty, the German Confederation came to an end, and Austria agreed to accept Prussian reorganization of northern Germany. In 1867, Prussia set up the North German Confederation, which included all the states north of the Main River. Prussia took almost complete control of the confederation. The remaining four German states south of the Main soon made military alliances with Prussia.==In 1870, Bismarck encouraged a Hohenzollern prince to accept the throne of Spain. France objected, though the prince refused the throne, and the dispute led to the Franco-Prussian War. The armies of the four southern German states joined with the forces of Prussia and the other German states. After losing several battles, the major French armies surrendered in September, 1870. The Germans surrounded Paris, and the city fell in January, 1871. Under the peace treaty, France gave up Alsace and part of Lorraine, which it had seized from Germany during the 1600's. ==In 1870, the four southern German states agreed to join the northern confederation in a united German Empire under Prussian leadership. .

42. The World Book Encyclopedia, Page 274 - (Volume 16- 1972) ==, The Rhine in History == The Rhine has been important in European history ever since Julius Caesar built a timber bridge across it. For 400 years the Rhine was the boundary between the Romans and the Germanic tribes. On the west bank of the Rhine grew up the Roman cities of Cologne, Koln(Colonia Agrippina), Bonn(Bonna), Koblenz(Confluentes), Mainz(Maguntiacum), all in Germany; Strasbourg (Argentoratum), in France; and Basel (Basilia), in Switzerland. ==During the Middle Ages, the Rhine was under German rule from Basel to The Netherlands. But when France gained a foothold on its western shore, in 1648, at the close of the Thirty Years' War, a struggle began which lasted into the 1900's. Louis XIV made gains in the Rhine Valley, and Napoleon restored the old Roman boundaries of France. Even after Napoleon was defeated, Alsace, which borders the Rhine from Switzerland to beyond Strasbourg, was left in French hands. But Germany siezed it again in 1870. ==The same territory was battled over once more during World War I. The Treaty of Versailles returned Alsace and Lorraine to France, again extending that country's domain to the Rhine. Germany signed an agreement not to fortify the Rhineland. In 1936, Hitler repudiated this agreement and began to militarize the region. During World War II, heavy fighting occurred along the Rhine in the last part of the European struggle. After the war, the river again became one of the busiest waterways in the world.

Subject: German Map - Dated about 1750 - Bruhl to Bonn

German - Old Map - Bruhl to Bo...

7/2/00

Dear Extended Lierz Family Members:

Attached to this email message is a German Map, dated about 1750, which is designating the area from Bruhl to Bonn. Bruhl is located a short distance to the west of Cologen (Koln) in Germany.

The Arch -Bishop Clemens August updated the building of his castle at Bruhl in the 1700's. The Arch-Bishop was over that region, both religiously and economically in those days. The archives for the genealogy history of all German people of the Rhineland region are stored in buildings on the Schloss Augustburg in Bruhl, which included the Lierz family ancestors and descendants in the Rhineland region of Germany.

The Lierz family genealogy research by Betty Lierz Swann on the Lierz family from 1620 to the 1850's, etc. was done from the Morman electronic database in Salt Lake City, Utah. After the second world war, the Morman photocopied the genealogy achives Schloss (Castle/Palace) Augustburg in Bruhl. I made a personal visit to the Castle archives in June of 2000 to determine what existed. I gave a copy of the details to Wilhelm Lierz in Germany, since all of the information was in the German Language.

This map was given to me by Wilhelm Lierz in Germany in early June of 2000, at our first meetings of the Lierzs of Germany.

Why is this map important to the Lierzs?

If you will locate on the map the village of Sechtem, it is locate on the left hand side of the road, from north to south, a few miles south of Schloss

Augustusburg. This is where my generation's great-great grandfather was born in 1839. The distances on the map from Bruhl to Bonn is less than 20 miles. We have been advised that this little village does not exist today.

By separate email, I have been sending different people in the extended Lierz family the details on the Lierzs of Germany.

Bye for now. Maurice Lierz, Santa Fe, NM, USA

Dear Extended Family Members:

By this email message, I will try to provide you with some of the details on celebrating the life of Cathryn Wichman Lierz, an aunt, who passed away on September 24, 2000.

Cathryn Wichman Lierz was born on January 13, 1921 on a farm, which was located south of the town of Seneca, Kansas. She was the 5th child of Harry and Rose Wichman.

Education, etc.:
Cathryn attended grade school in Seneca and she graduated from Sts. Peter and Paul High School in 1938. She did play basketball on the girls' high school team.
Cathryn was active in 4-H Club work (Future Farmers of America).

I learned that Cathryn had been assigned to see that her brother, Regis, got his homework done for school. Regis verified that was correct! Cathryn was a talented seamstress and did clothes, mostly dresses. She had made dresses for her daughter and granddaughters.

Marriage, etc.:
Cathryn Wichman married Edward Lierz on January 31, 1940 at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Seneca, Kansas. She was one of three women who got married that week in Seneca and was featured in the Courier Tribune newspaper. All three women are listed in our genealogy database.

Cathryn and Ed celebrated their 50th weeding anniversary in Sun City, Arizona with family and friends in 1990.

Farming and Business:
With her husband, Ed, they farmed, east and southeast of Seneca, Kansas on Ed's parents old home place in the Ford Community. They also farmed some land which was adjacent to their home place. They lived and worked on these farms from 1940 to 1951, when they moved into Seneca. They continued to own these farms until 1977. During that time, they rented out the farms.

After they moved into Seneca, they owned the "Lierz Men and Boys Store, Inc." on main street in Seneca from 1951 to 1977. Then, they sold the store to their son, Daniel, and his wife, Connie, who owned and operated the store as "Lierz Clothing Inc.", since they carried women's clothing, from 1977 to 1989.

Retirement - Sun City, Arizona:
Cathryn and her husband, Ed, retired to Sun City, Arizona in 1975. They had their personal resident their until 1996. They were avid golfers and enjoyed the fall, winter and spring seasons in Arizona and the summer season in Seneca, Kansas.

Survivors, etc.:
Cathryn is survived by: her son, Daniel Lierz and his wife, Connie, of Galena, Missouri; and grandchildren: Miranda Lierz Espenback of Euless, Texas, Toni Rae Lierz Kester of Belton, MO., Dana Kay Lierz of Galena, MO., Shawn Cox and Jermiah Cox of Princeton, Indiana and great-grandson - Anfrew Lierz Espanback of Euless, Texas and four sisters: Henrietta Pavlin of Boise, Idaho, Charlene Mohlman of Seneca, Kansas, Dorothy Lierz of Colorado Springs, CO., and Marian Crandall of Morrison, CO; and one brother, Regis Wichman of Colorado Springs, CO.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Edward Lierz in 1995 and her daughter, Mary Ann Lierz Cox, in 1999. She was also preceded in death by her parents, Harry and Rose Wichman and two brothers, Maurice Wichman and Leonard Wichman, all formerly of Colorado Springs, CO.

ial Services, etc.:
Burial and Rosary services were held at Sunland Funeral Home in Sun City, Arizona on September 28, 2000. Cathryn was buried with her husband, Edward Lierz.

Her sisters, Henrietta Pavlin and her husband Robert Pavlin, Dorothy Lierz, Regis Wichman and a nephew, Maurice Lierz, attended these services with Daniel and Connie Lierz. Rita Wichman, wife of Harold Wichman of Litchfield Park, Arizona, was also in attendance. Harold was a cousin of Cathryn Wichman. Her sisters, Charlene was recovering from eye surgery and Marian was recovering from hip surgery.

Health Conditions:
Cathryn Lierz suffered from Alzheimers desease from the time she was 67 years of age, until her death at age 79. She lived with her situation for about 12 years, of which she spent 7 years with her husband and then 5 years with Daniel and Connie Lierz in Kimberling City and Galena, MO. She lived the 4 phases of the desease, with each pahse getting progressive worse. Connie and Daniel have carried a heavy burden during that period of time. Please remember them in your prayers.

Family History - Alzheimers:
Her grandmother Anna Guenther Block, also suffered with Alzheimers desease, but it was not defined as such at the time.

Connie Lierz did review this draft for me, so that I was able to state the facts as accurately as possible.

Dear Maurice:

Since I still have Family Tree Maker open I decided now was as good as time as any to make a disk on the Lierz Family. I have this file listed as Lierz Family. According to the program I have 41 pages of information on the Lierz Family on this disk. My brother-in-law, Dennis Dick of Lafayette, Colorado, gathered most of the information on the early generations of the Lierz Family. This file has nine generations of the Lierz Family.

I also have a small amount of information on the Waller Family. My Grandmother's sister, Anna Catherine Luckeroth, was married to John Waller. I'll put this information on the same disk with the file name – Waller Family. Another Waller connection - my cousin, Martin Gress, was married to Mary Elizabeth Waller. I don't recall Mary's father's name but he lived in Seneca.

If we dig far enough we can probably find a lot more information in each other's files that we can import into our own files.

Our conversation about the house in Seneca reminded me of another incident. Recently I have had correspondence with Stephen Boeding of Garland, Texas. We have discovered his father and I were classmates at Sts. Peter and Paul School in Seneca. It's definitely a small world and getting smaller all the time.

I am enclosing a copy of the 1870 US Census showing Peter J. Liers living in Richmond Township, Nemaha County Kansas. This enumeration bore the family number 81. My great-grandparents, Peter and Christina Luckeroth, enumeration of the same year bore the family number 80. This would indicate to me that they probably lived nearby. I think my mother often said that P. J. Lierz lived across the road from the Luckeroth's. I am enclosing a map of the location of the two farms. I am also enclosing a copy of the Application of citizenship made by P. J. Lierz on October 26, 1869. I thought you might be interested in these items.

I look forward to receiving a disk from you so that I can look for more "mutual" connections.

I enjoyed our conversation. Oh the wonders of modern technology.

Sincerely

Dorothy Dick

P.S. - If you would like a copy of my entire genealogy file it now requires 3 - 3½ disks.

Peter Joseph Lierz's Genealogy Data

We are still incomplete on the finalization of the Peter Joseph Lierz family tree, but I can say that there are over 1500 persons identified as his descendants. This list will be over 25 pages in length. I need certain family members to send me their updated genealogy data, particularly for events of the past 20 years, such as for the Hasenkamps, Mergenmeiers, Dutch Lierzs, and Charles Lierzs. Various people have been providing me with their genealogy information to date.

Comments, Suggestions, Recollections, Etc.

Please review the accompanying genealogy data. After you have reflected on this information, please give me any comments, suggestions, etc. on these matters. If you have any recollections that will give us further insight into the family's past, please give me your thoughts for a better understanding of the past for the benefit of our current and future generations.

As you are probably aware, we may be making correct or incorrect conclusions about the family's past, based on available genealogy data.

We would not be able to assemble and analyze this much genealogy data without the benefit of current computer programs, etc. I have used the Lierz Family Tree publication that was developed by Cletus Suther in 1973. In addition, I am working with his son, Scott Suther, in Ohio on obtaining certain obituaries from the Courier Tribune. The results of this information are contained in our families genealogy databases now.
